- 6. The retraining lasts two months. Once a month there is an inspection by Soviet officers. In 1953 only Czechs of the classes of 1926 and 1927 were called up for retraining.
- 7. The regiment is fully equipped with standard infantry weapons. The two retraining companies are differently armed pertinently to the occasion. The 2nd Company has the following arms: one 45 mm antitank guns; one 76.2 mm antitank gun; five antitank rockets; two 50 mm morters, one 82 mm morter; two 12.7 mm antisireraft heavy machine guns; two heavy machine guns; five light machine guns; 12 Soviet pistols; 30 Soviet machine pistols, 98 infantry rifles.
- 8. On the west side of the Auscha-Tetschendorf highway, opposite the infantry barracks, are a number of barracks used as depots for storing ammunition, clothing and other reserve materials for the event of a mobilization of the regiment.
